20TH ANNUAL CORNISH APPLE FESTIVAL

CORNISH, ME, AUG. 2009. – The Cornish Association of Businesses (CAB) is sponsoring the 20th Annual Cornish Apple Festival on Saturday, September 26th in historic Cornish Village located in the scenic Western mountain and lakes region of Maine on Route 25 — 30 miles West of Portland and 9 miles East of the New Hampshire border.

Each year, this FREE festival is held from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the center of Cornish village in historic Thompson Park and features more than this season's apples, freshly pressed cider and other apple products from local vendors. There will also be;

- Over 60 vendors offering art, photography, jewelry, crafts, apple and non-apple cuisine,
- Entertainment from local performers,
 - 9:30 – Luke Wilson
 - 10:30 – Day for Night
 - 11:30 – Dancers
 - 12:30 – Empty Pockets
 - 1:30 – Dancers
 - 2:30 – Jaye Drew and a Moving Train
- Annual Apple Pie Baking Contest and Auction,
- Shopping at many local shops,
- Raffle of original art from this year's commemorative poster,
- 5K road race,
- Church supper at the Cornish United Church of Christ, and
- 13th Annual Apple Acres Farm Bluegrass Gathering

Thompson Park will be the center of the day's festivities featuring colorful booths of arts and crafts. Additionally, many food booths offering delicious food, especially the apple fritters, will delight the appetites of both the young and old.

In addition to the crafts and food, live entertainment will be performed throughout the day. Both the Nancy Breton School of Dance cloggers and the Center of Movement Dancers will be returning again this year as well as performances by local musicians.
