The Treasurer's Report was accepted.

The 2012 Budget was also updated reflecting the expenses and income for the year to date. There was discussion about several items in the budget. It was felt that the T-shirts were too expensive and that the year should not be placed on the shirts so that they could carry over to the following year. It was also suggested that they could be given out at the Christmas Party since they have 2012 on the shirt. A Thank you will be sent to Tom Thoman for the wonderful support from the 5K Race. It was also noted that there are 3 new members who will have their memberships continue for 2013.

I. Old Business

A. Christmas in Cornish- The final plans for this exciting event were discussed by chairman, Lisa Tutor. She gave a complete outline of the events. Watch the CAB website and Your Weekly Shopper's Guide. Don't miss out on all the fun, festive activities. Be sure to buy your lights of Love to honor and remember loved ones. They are $2.00 for one or 3 for $5.00. The sales close on the 20th so HURRY! Local Businesses can offer their support by buying a 2" ad to be placed in Your Weekly Shopping guide for two weeks With the Christmas in Cornish listing for $30.00. So far 13 businesses have pledged their support .HELP is needed to deck the park on Sunday morning Nov.25th at 9AM. Call Eileen McKinney (ph. 625-8835) if you can help. Lisa Pease, a volunteer helper ,is bringing greens and garlands for decoration. The town of Cornish underwrites these decorations. Kezar Falls Fire Dept. will be on hand to put up the lights. Remember we decorate at the Fairgrounds as well. A big Thank You goes to the Fairgrounds Committee for picking up the cost of lighting the area. The Inkwell will be printing additional booklets for the caroling with Rich Rulin on Friday night the 30th at the tree lighting. Cocoa and coffee and cookies will be provided. If you would like to bake let Eileen know at ph. 625-8835. There will be carriage rides along with a special addition this year of the arrival of Santa at the park and later at the fairgrounds on Saturday. There will be holiday music along with many other activities. Watch the ads and website for the timing and places of events on Friday and Saturday.

B. Annual Christmas Dinner- The invitations are ready to send. Be sure to RSVP by December 1st. Seating is limited. This year there will be a drawing for a free membership to CAB for 2013 for some lucky attendee. There will also be a Yankee Swap. It is asked that you cap your spending for a gift at $15.00. It was also suggested that alcohol be deleted from gift giving. Elizabeth Libby will again entertain us as the emcee for the swap. It's also a time to share. Bring a non- perishable item for the local food pantry.

II. New Business

A. Nominating Committee- Lisa Tutor has agreed to chair the nominating committee. The slate of officers will be presented for your vote at the Christmas dinner. New board members were added for the coming year. They are Paul Watson, Brad Perkins and Sue Melanson.

B. Suggestions were made for Christmas in Cornish next year. Brad Perkins suggested that Cornish businesses decorate Christmas trees in front of their shops.. Make Cornish come alive with lights, another great idea to make Cornish your Christmas destination.

C. Membership forms are available at the website and will be given out at the Christmas Party. Join early so that CAB can make their plans for 2013 to better serve the business community.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:30 PM. The next meeting will be the Annual Christmas Party at Krista's on December 11th at 6 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Ernestine Bash, Secretary
